

I would like to thank Step Afrika for coming to Patterson Mill High. The performance left an indelible mark and my principal is looking forward to bringing Step Afrika back next year. I loved the interactive format of the show. The step club at my school had looks on their faces as if it was Christmas day. Thank you for sharing your art with us!

—Stepping with Step Afrika!
performing at Patterson
Mill High School

1333 H Street, NE,
Washington, DC 20002

STEP AFRiKA!

ARTS EDUCATION REPORT
FY2018

STEPPING INTO SCHOOLS

We offer programs year-round for students of all ages in the Washington, DC area including performances, one-time workshops, and ongoing weekly residencies.

18,887

students served by Step Afrika! at 62 schools in DC, Maryland, and Virginia

- Step Afrika! Reads
- Stepping with Step Afrika!
- Step Up to College
- Step Shop Workshop
- Step Afrika! Masterclass

SUMMER STEPS WITH STEP AFRIKA!

Summer Steps with Step Afrika! is a one-week program for grades 4-12 exploring the tradition of stepping while developing skills in leadership and teamwork. The camp culminated in a celebratory "step show" at the National Building Museum, open to parents and friends.

85

in camp for the first time

46

returning campers

131

students attended

23

Scholarships awarded

FIELD TRIP EXPERIENCES

With the support of the DC Commission on the Arts and Humanities, Step Afrika! offered a free performance to Step Afrika!'s critically-acclaimed work, The Migration: Reflections on Jacob Lawrence. Step Afrika! scheduled 2 matinee performances, and offered 16 pre-performance workshops to students in Washington, DC.

1,231

students

15

DC Public and Public Charter Schools

NATIONAL ARTS EDUCATION PROGRAMS

As a national touring company, Step Afrika! engages students across the country through workshops, masterclasses, and performances students were served in more than 10 states including:

16,174

- The Brooklyn Performing Arts Center in New York
- James Madison University Performing Arts Center in Virginia
- Raue Arts Center in Illinois
- Younes and Soraya Nazarian Center for the Performing Arts in California
- Alaska Junior Theater in Alaska
- Detroit Institute of Arts in Detroit
- The Grand Opera House in Delaware