

2018 – 2019
SEASON

Arts Education Annual Report

STEP AFRiKA!

CELEBRATING

25

25 YEARS!

STEPPING INTO SCHOOLS

We offer programs year-round for students of all ages in the Washington, DC area with a variety of scheduling options, including performances, one-time workshops, and ongoing weekly sessions.

19,722

students served by Step Afrika! at 76 schools in DC, Maryland, and Virginia

- Step Afrika! Reads
- Stepping with Step Afrika!
- Step Up to College
- Step Shop Workshop
- Step Afrika! Masterclass

SUMMER STEPS WITH STEP AFRIKA!

Summer Steps with Step Afrika! is a one-week program for grades 4-12 exploring the tradition of stepping while developing skills in leadership and teamwork. The camp culminated in a celebratory "step show" at the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts, open to parents and friends.

57%

95 in camp for the first time

43%

75 returning campers

170

students attended

25

Scholarships awarded

FIELD TRIP EXPERIENCES

With the support of the DC Commission of the Arts and Humanities, the Company offered a free performance to Step Afrika!'s 25th Anniversary Performance. Step Afrika! scheduled 3 matinee performances and offered 12 pre-performance workshops to students in Washington, DC.

1,015

students attended the field trips.

20

DC Public and Public Charter Schools

NATIONAL ARTS EDUCATION PROGRAMS

As a national touring company, Step Afrika! engages students across the country through workshops, masterclasses, and performances.

16,168

students were served in more than 12 states including:

- University of North Carolina Wilmington Performing Arts Center
- Spruce Peak Performing Arts Center in Stowe, Vermont
- Sandler Center for the Performing Arts in Virginia Beach, Virginia
- Children's Theater of Charlotte
- Marcus Center for the Performing Arts in Milwaukee, Wisconsin
- Adrienne Arsht Center for the Performing Arts in Miami, Florida

